

I think the do not call list is the best thing ever done. I have peace of mind that I will not get those rude, annoying telemarketers calling me at all hours of the day. The reason people pay for private inlisted phone numbers to begin with is just that to ensure their privacy. Telemarketers are an invasion of my privacy.